How Are iBraces Made?

Your doctor takes a very precise impression of your teeth and sends the impression, along with your prescription, to Lingualcare™.

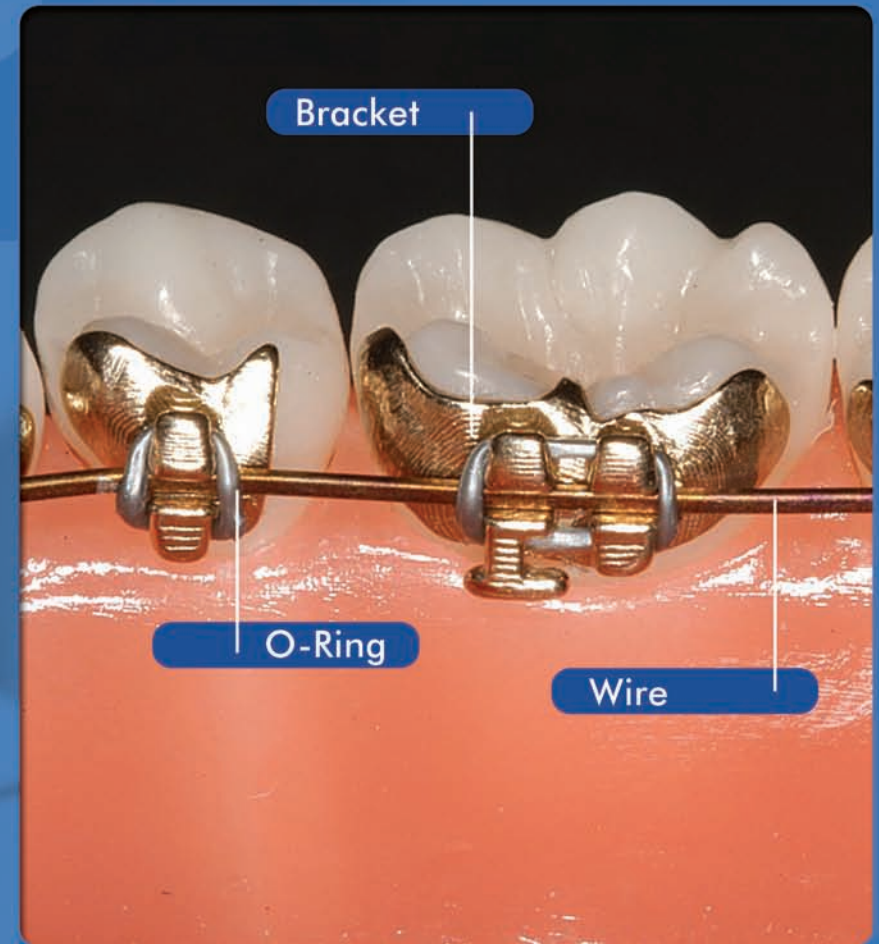

Models are scanned into the computer where your brackets are designed by a highly-skilled lab technician.

CAD/CAM technology is used to design and fabricate your 100% customized iBraces. Each bracket and wire is made specifically for you with your unique prescription built in.

Your customized iBraces are delivered to your doctor's office for your bonding appointment.

What are iBraces Patients Saying?

“It only took me a week or so to get used to my iBraces. Now I hardly notice them. My smile has improved dramatically in a short period of time. I love the way my teeth look! My husband was so impressed that he decided to get them too.”

Alicia, Age 28, Small Business Owner

“I really like my iBraces. I have had them on for about a year and I’m almost done. I have told all my friends about iBraces and now they want them too.”

Alex, Age 14, Student

“I needed braces since high school but I never wanted to get them. I speak in public and still make numerous radio and TV appearances. There is no way I was going to wear regular braces. Thanks to iBraces I don’t have to. I am getting the smile that I always wanted and no one knows that I am wearing braces.”

Russell Maryland, Age 36, Retired from NFL
